

1. Color differentiation between black and dark brown plastic interior components

Two plastic interior parts should be color differentiated. At this a color sensor type SPECTRO-3-30-DIL is used. The distance from the sensor to the object is approximately 30mm. The two components can be proper differentiated, as shown in the screenshots.

