

1. Counting of transparent plastic lids

Transparent plastic lids should be counted. For this purpose, an edge detector type RED-110-L is used. At this, the distance from the sensor to the object is approximately 100mm and the laser spot size at this distance is around 4mm x 0.1mm. The lids can be proper counted as shown in the screen shots.

